Dear Norma,

Hi. Here's all the luck in the world to a really swell & cute girl. It's been swell knowing you. I guess will never forget about Miss Ritchey's class & the second floor incident. (When Mrs. Munsel (Vice Prin.) opened the door & said "Brave Girls!") Gosh, I'll never forget it - but it was fun - huh? We should have learned then - but the time & place I'm writing this - doesn't look like we have.

It's been fun sitting with you & the other Norma in assemblies.

Have fun through life! Go on a lot more beach parties too. Have fun with your <sup>soldier (I'm sorry!)</sup> ~~man~~ - he's cute!

Gosh, on a special page like this I should be able to think of more to write you. but I just can't. Drop me a line sometime to Washington <sup>too</sup> huh?

(write 3831-1st & they'll forward it)
San Diego.

Lots of Love,

Dotty Swan '45

P.S. You're sure getting a nice tan - must be from those beach parties.

Dear Fellows!

Here it is--THE ANNUAL! Remember how afraid you were that you wouldn't get yours, and how when you sent us your picture--that new one of you in your uniform--you wrote, "Listen, kids, that annual better be good--or else!"

Well, the annual's here--and golly, guys, we wish you were here too. It would be beanie if you could get in on all the Senior activities--even if you could just be here! There are some things around the old school that would be new to you---like the sound proofing that muffles the between-periods racket in the 100 building, and the

San Diego High School
SAN DIEGO, 2, CALIFORNIA

fancy new directory (just like the Bank of America) that last June's Seniors left us, and (you won't believe this!)---there are honest-to-gosh plans for a Student Union Building to be built on campus, a place where everything from Russ meetings to dances can be held. And did we write you that the tombstone is to be moved to the auditorium steps?

Mostly, though, things are just the way they were when you were here last year. Mondays are still reserved for Council meetings and Tuesdays for Cabinet. We all stand in fear of missing more than two Senior A Cabinet meetings without an excuse, or having our names read on the "dog list"

San Diego High School
SAN DIEGO 2, CALIFORNIA

for not having sold at least five dues.
After meetings, we still go down to Roland's or Mannings and listen to the juke box play
"Rum and Coca-Cola" and "Don't Fence Me In." That's when we gab over all the things that have happened in class--like Rosemary Barnes and Tom Powell generating the most horsepower the day the physics classes ran up the stadium steps, and Bridgid Boland earning those thousands of puntos in Spanish, and Danny Nordstrom writing a poem in English Lit. about his Starlet, The Briney.
Safely stationed over cokes or coffee, we can laugh about the strange little running walk the kids employ to get to those hot meat sandwiches in the cold lunch line;

San Diego High School
SAN DIEGO 2, CALIFORNIA

we can even smile over the tragedy that has occurred in the popsicle world: they are becoming less and less flavored and more and more colored!

The guys and gals are just the same, too; only they look a little different on the outside. The blond streak in the pompadour is a thing of the past; we've started doing our hair with a center part, a flat band of ribbon across the top. Everybody is sporting chartreuse or fuschia sweaters and Mexican silver jewelry; and it's really cool, having saddles back again, although some people seem to prefer wearing the loafers we all got used to while saddle shoes were extinct. As for male styles, the

SAN DIEGO, 2, CALIFORNIA

cords and levis you cherished so (Remember?) are still around--and do the fellows cherish them now with a serious shortage of pants in S. D. these days!

A couple of other things still going strong are the raves for Frank Sinatra and Lana Turner, although Lauren Bacall is really the new sensation with the fellows.
All of us gals went down to swoon over Rudolph Valentino in a revival of his last picture. Wonderful man! Old records are being reissued too, especially some of that wonderful Miller and Shaw that we missed before we got our record players.

So, here we are Seniors, doing all these things; yet they don't seem so important and exciting as they looked when we were Sophomore B's. Maybe it's because after you get to the top, there's no one to look up to. We used to think that remotely senior Shirley Brown was so glamorous; but now from a distance, Sophomores have our friend Ione Rhodes for a pin-up. And just as we used to marvel at George Keith's precision in putting out The Russ, so peagreens now marvel at Al Fern and his remarkable New Order. And we were always so awed by Ray Blair as ASB prexy, but now the Sophs find Dale Sutliff just as impressive---even if we do call him "Zebra" because of his three stripe sweater. We've done lots of things, big and little, in our three years at Hilltop--but this semester has been the best of them all.

San Diego High School

The only thing that could have made it better would have been for you to join in the activities with us. We want you to know though that it's been fun working for the class, and especially for you, putting out the yearbook so that we can all have a picture of what was happening at "The Gray Castle-- 1945."

Joyce and Miriam

Dearest Norma,
 you all are wishing
 in the whole wide world. Its sure been swell going around with you & working with you at Quinns. I hope we will see alot of each other this summer and must stop writing school. Will, I'd better stop else to for I can't think of any thing else to write & I have to all my love, your judy.

Faculty

... By EILEEN COTANT

The SDHS faculty will always be memorable to us of the senior classes of 1945. In coming years we'll remember the awe which possessed us at the sight of Dr. John Aseltine, an ardent backer of Castle traditions who ruled pleasantly and well as principal. We'll remember Dr. Aseltine's administrative aides in the persons of David B. Austin, boys' vice principal during our sophomore year, and Mr. Austin's successor, slim Bill Lyons. (Cavemen still—literally and figuratively—had to look up to him.) We'll remember trimly tailored Miss Ruth Munsell, girls' dean.

Dr. Aseltine this year worked through a new counselling system known as the homeroom plan. Under this "new order" pupils having the same major are able to meet together each week with a teacher of their major subject. Sophomores and juniors are under staff counselors; seniors under department heads.

When we achieved our "seniority" this fall, seven new teachers were acquired by the school: Mrs. Marion Ausseness, Mrs. Lois DeFranco, Miss Juanita Lutz, Mrs. Sarellen Wuest, Miss Eleanor Soule, Mrs. Dorothy Ploss (known in September as Miss Jessen), and Mrs. Marion Ridout (previously Miss Speelman). Then too there were five returnees, including Miss Virginia Gilloon, Mrs. Laura Hardenbrook, Tilden Barr, James R. Kennedy, and B. H. F. Smith.

At the beginning of our junior year, a new plan was adopted whereby our first period teachers issued admit cards. As a result fewer of us became acquainted with the attendance secretaries. Miss Aloha Remfree and Mrs. Lois Jones (formerly Miss Rinde). Mrs. Marie Hemingway, our efficient registrar, helped make certain that we had enough credits to graduate.

Activities—Fall

... By DONNA CRANDALL

Handling the gavel at the head of the ASB Council table during the fall semester was Joe Alston, peppy ex-cheer leader. From the first meeting, Joe was in there, all eagerness, pitching to put over a successful program. With the entire Council behind him, he was able to announce the re-opening of the Cave-Inn on September 21. From then on, hundreds of students spent a leisurely hour after school each week sampling cokes and cakes, battling at ping-pong, and dancing to the music of the latest records. At the same time the ASB launched an extensive evening dance program. Clever Council members Don Reed and Danny Nordstrom made the Council's dreams come true by securing a blue and white canvas band stand for the SDHS Swing Band and by presenting Cavefolk with a handsome wooden coke-bar.

With the beginning of the basketball season, the Cave-Inn had to declare time out for three months. Joe Alston then came through with his plan to build a Student Union Building as a memorial to the men of San Diego High School who have been killed in the war. It took no time at all to convince Hillers of the worth of this idea, and plans were immediately begun. A committee was appointed to draw up drafts of the proposed building and work on ideas for raising funds for its construction. Another bright idea of the fall semester was the organization of a truly democratic Student Assembly, to be run on the same plan as the United States Senate. Under Vice President Bud Johnson, the organization was instrumental in decreasing Hiller's long-time dissatisfaction with "partisanship" in school politics. A rebirth took place when the old pep squad got a shot in the arm and capably took over the "dirty work" around school.

Success was in the air all during the fall semester with the announcement that The Russ had won the coveted Pace-maker award for Kelly Starr's issues of the preceding semester, closely followed by the presentation to Sports Editors Dick Aseltine and Al Fern of the Helms Award for outstanding sports reporting in a southern California high school paper. In the spring at the semi-annual talent show subscribers saw Mary Rainey succeed Jackie Wilkins as Miss Print.

Eighty homeroom representatives lobbied eagerly for more and better assemblies, shorter lunch lines, and more recognition for the student not actually in politics, at the bi-monthly meetings of the Student Assembly. Under the direction of capable ASB Vice President Bud Johnson, the Assembly had the power to veto motions introduced by the Council, as well as to submit bills to the Council for consideration.

Girls' League—Fall

All the traditional activities of the Girls' League were carried out during the fall semester, with Cavebelles new to the Hill being introduced to Castle life at the Welcome party early in October. Following this, girls got the latest inside info on school and play styles at the semi-annual fashion show. Climax of the semester was the "Snowflake Swirl," the fanciful name given to a dance held December 1.

Officers: Carolyn Nichols, president; Marian McDermott, vice president; Elsie Erickson, secretary; Theresa Lovelly, treasurer.

Boys' Federation—Fall

Presentation of the first successful Boys' Federation dance in history put that organization off to a good start for the fall semester. The "Skunk Hollow Hop" theme was carried out by Dog Patch figures adorning the gym walls. The dance was followed by a Red Cross Penny Drive, which netted the ambitious fellows $124 in just one week. An active semester closed with "for men only" athletic exhibitions in the gym.

Song and Cheer Leaders

Following the traditional form of pep leaders, this live-wire septet urged Hill rooting sections to greater heights of yells and songs during both the football and basketball seasons. This year's song and cheer leaders were able to perform before record crowds as night games brought San Diegans by the thousands to the Stadium during the football season. Arlette Scrivanek, blond song leader, left the group when she was graduated in January.

Second row: Tom Crawford, Dale Sutliff, Bill Hall.

Activity Committee—Fall

Quantity took a back seat to expediency this fall when the number of commissioners on the Council was reduced to one: the Activity Commissioner. The remaining positions were combined into an Activity Committee headed by the Commissioner, who had charge of all ASB events plus all class activities. Hard-working members planned assemblies, dances, art, and publicity for everything that happened at the Hill.

Second row: Lyle Mitchell, John Baker, Bryce Ashton.

Activities—Spring

... By DONNA CRANDALL

Two school days before the beginning of the spring semester, Lyle Mitchell and Dale Sutliff watched the staggering crowd of Hillers choose between them in the run-off elections for ASB president. The following Monday found Dale victorious, already hustling off to a good start. New council members wasted no time in claiming Lyle as their activity commissioner. Assembly scheduling soon began; speakers were presented for the first month, and then the semester was rounded off with jam sessions, talent shows, and plays. As soon as Lyle had chosen his committee, Hilltop students began to whisper the pass-word "Cave-Inn!" March 1 they crowded into the Boys' Gym for the grand re-opening; and with monthly dances set on the calendar, the semester was soon running at full speed. ASB officers then took time out for a Sunday afternoon at the beach. Excited "big people on campus" tried hard to stay dry and on Coach Werner Petersen's aqua-board. Fatal and futile attempts by Don Robertson and Marty Jones brought howls of laughter from the others clustered on the shore. Newly invigorated Council members returned to school rooting and ready to begin the campaign to stimulate interest in the approaching baseball season, always an orphan as far as attendance at games is concerned. Since strengthening war bond sales was another item on the Council schedule of things to be done, Charles Kerridge was appointed general chairman in charge of promotion. Top-notch performers were secured by Chuck to participate in shows for all "100 per cent every week" buyers of stamps and bonds. With such an activity-packed calendar, time flew by and the semester came to an unexpected close at the semi-annual, all important ASB Ball. This dance put the final touch on a very successful semester.

Handling an average of three cases a week, the Student Court was led by two judges during the year, Roger Ruffin and John Baker. The pair meted out justice in the form of exceptionally long themes or suspension of drivers' licenses to penitent offenders. Second or third time miscreants found themselves liable to much stiffer punishment at the hands of the Court.

Going on with plans and problems already tackled by the Fall assembly, the group endeavored to make homeroom one of the most important and worthwhile periods of the school day. Aided by a "Homeroom Evaluating Committee," presidents were able to pass legislative measures, guide student opinion, and increase the actual benefit derived from the period by students.

Boys' Federation—Spring

The fellows were quite content this semester to have assemblies by themselves. Hillers attended athletic exhibitions in the gym and listened to speakers who have become world-famous in their own fields. Much attention was focused on the dance given jointly with the Girls' League, and especially on the lucky couple who carried away the real live "cottontail."

Girls' League—Spring

The Girls' League opened its spring semester with a new and exciting assembly: a basketball game in the boys' gym. GAA girls and some picked from the sixth period gym classes made up the teams for the rollicking game. "Nine Girls," a Drama Club production, was the next item on the League program, followed by a sport dance given jointly with the Boys' Fed.

Activity Committee—Spring

Continuing the fine work of the preceding semester, the Activity Committee was responsible for a varied program of assemblies, dances, and other events. Despite critical shortages of decorative materials and the rest of the trimmings, the committee managed to make the semester one of the most colorful in many years, relying on quality instead of quantity for its pleasing calendar of events during the spring semester.

Student Union Building

In order to carry out the plans for the newly proposed Student Union Building, Danny Nordstrom chose a working committee composed of six members. Xavier Mena and Betty Williamson drew up plans for the floor and exterior architecture of the building, while the other committee members outlined the purpose of the building and methods of publicizing it. Despite many changes from the original, the committee has produced a fine working plan.

Classes—Spring

Senior B's enjoyed a get-together, talent assembly, and trip to the beach under the supervision of their cabinet. ## Clubs—Skill

... By VELDA HAWTHORN

We put in our six long hours in the classroom; and when 2:30 arrived, what did most of us do but turn to another classroom! This time we learned for pleasure. Great actors met with equally great thespians. Budding orators convened with talented talkers. Ace photographers shared important data with other camera bugs. Important authors discussed literary works with aspiring scribes. Great minds gathered everywhere to share world-shaking ideas. This galaxy of stupendous people formed the special interest groups which we found a welcome addition to our curricular activities. Always, in any field, there was a club to cater to the interests of its followers. It would have been nice if we could have taken a little more advantage of the opportunities they offered.

We would like to have been with the Debate Club when they carried away the prizes at State College. We wish we could have seen more Drama Club presentations, like "Out of the Frying Pan," "Junior Miss," and "Nine Girls." If we could carry a tune, we wish we'd joined the hard-working, sweet-singing SDHS Choir and taken part in the two school assemblies which were just two dates on the calendar of this busy club. Business men, educators, children, socialites, and servicemen made up the pleased audience of the Choir as they sang a full schedule at Christmas and Easter. We wish we had been Glacier Gliders and learned to glide instead of slide. Quill and Scroll was out of our line, though we think that it would have been fun to take part in some of those cozy dinner-business meetings. Not all of us found that we were great, but we found that we were welcomed with open arms by our fellow seekers after learning. We're glad we had the chance to learn and do so many things; we wish we could have done them all.

The intelligentsia of Hilltop, members of the CSF, made merry as well as A's during the fall semester by enjoying their traditional ditch day and taking time off from studies to attend a special assembly planned by their alert cabinet. A patriotic motif was introduced by the purchase of two $100 war bonds out of the surplus funds. Spring brought on a rough and rainy ditch day at the beach and a super get together in the gym.

Remember the letters to service men you wrote in your English classes? That was only one of the projects of this literary organization. These talented journalists met to discuss what's what in the literary world. The Quill and Scroll's membership is confined to those who demonstrate outstanding ability in the field of journalism. Meetings were held at members' homes every other week.

Drama Club members who show outstanding ability may, by compiling points through participation in plays, directing, and writing, become eligible for the Thespian Society. The Thespians as honor dramatists are famous for their beautiful pins, clever improvisations, and their unique initiations. With Miss Lois Perkins, their sponsor, they have aided such productions as "Out of the Frying Pan," "Junior Miss" and "Nine Girls." Thespians played leads in both February and June Senior A plays, "Quality Street" and "The Rivals."

Special programs were arranged for every day and different pictorial drills were done at each football game. The Sergeanettes ball, held in February, was deemed one of the most successful dances at the Hilltop this semester.

Clubs—Service

... By HALLEINE SHARP

Every morning, all year long, we dragged ourselves to school just in time to make that eight o'clock class; we thought we were doing well if we did make it, but many mornings such organizations as the Pep Squad were at school bright and early at seven-thirty to get their instructions from their leader, Donna Crandall. This busy little group probably did more service on campus than any other.

During our first September at the Hilltop we heard daily bulletin notices about the meetings of our school clubs. We finally decided to attend a few to see if we were interested. Of course, we didn't know it, but we were caught even before we went, for it happened that we chose organizations such as the Hi-Y's and the Junior Optimists. These fellas really went all out in doing school service by painting the football helmets and later conducting a paper drive; and the aforementioned Hi-Y's and Spartans held sales galore, sponsored inter-club athletics, and put on dances off campus.

The Girls Reserves and Horizon clubs were always on the lookout for new girls to boost their membership; and almost before they realized it, the girls were "in." Horizon club members did their part by doing USO work, while the Girl Reserves promoted closer cooperation between girls of all classes.

Chinese students in the Mai-Wa club had an opportunity to get together with Sponsor Miss Mary Walker and hold a highly successful dance for United China Relief.

Two religious groups, the Bible and Aquinas Clubs, had a year filled with activities. The Bible Club, which dealt in biblical interpretation, had some interesting guest speakers during the semester. Catholic students who joined the Aquinas Club alternated between social and serious meetings.

Starting off the year with a bang, the Junior Optimists remained one of the most active clubs at the Hilltop. As a service organization, it had an interest in many activities. Besides sponsoring a successful paper drive, the JO's painted the varsity football helmets before the last Hoover game. In sports they fielded a grid team and a cage crew for inter-club competition. Two joint meetings, a dinner, and a closed bid dance rounded out a fun-packed year.

An enthusiastic group of girls from all classes form the Girl Reserves. Always active, this year they enjoyed some very unusual meetings. Programs were the center of interest; very popular was a fashion show with the girls themselves as models. Several skits and rallies were presented by the school yell leaders. At the beginning of the spring semester the group was divided into two clubs, Junior-Senior and Sophomore, each having separate activities.

In numerous inter-club grid tussles, this Hi-Y emerged victorious; it also produced a highly-rated basketball team. Other activities of the club included dances, ice cream sales, picnics, hay rides, and beach parties.

Combining business with pleasure, members of the Gray Castle Hi-Y held meetings on Wednesdays at the YMCA. Following business, the boys liked to go down to shows. Another feature of their fun-packed year was joint meetings with other clubs, including the Point Loma group. Sales and parties rounded out the year's activities for the fellows. This junior club added new members during the semester.

Composed entirely of sophomores, the Hilltop Hi-Y meets every Wednesday night at the YMCA. Despite the fact that the group had a hard time getting started, the Hilltop played an active part in the various Hi-Y basketball leagues and started to make plans to be carried out during the members' junior year when it will become the Gray Castle Hi-Y.

The Russ basketball team, featuring many lettermen, played various other teams during the season. Russmen journeyed to Laguna to enjoy the snow and took part in many joint meetings, dinners, and parties here in town.

This club, new among Hill-top organizations, has dedicated itself to helping the war effort by aiding service people through the Red Cross and the Naval Hospital. The girls have adopted a ward at the Hospital for which they provide scrapbooks, puzzles, and a monthly party. The girls also did great service to the school by checking gift boxes for service men during the Christmas season.

Sports—Fall

... By ED STREICHER

War did not hamper athletic caliber this year as the blue-and-white-clads wrested team and individual championships from all comers in almost every department.

Cave gridders, keeping in mind Mentor Bill Bailey's theory that it's so much nicer to win, obediently pulverized their opponents, incidentally retrieving Victory League Championship laurels, which had been momentarily surrendered to their cross-town competitors the year before. Sweetest memory was this year's Hoover massacre with the Baileymen coming out on the happier side of a 72-0 score. Day-to-be-forgotten was October 20, when Long Beach Poly took advantage of local hospitality by pushing over a hard win (fortunately, it was a non-league game!), thus marring an otherwise perfect slate. The pigskin boys atoned for their sin by smearing other opposing teams.

Memorable highlights included: Tom Powell's quarterbacking and triple threat offensive work; tiny Cosimo Cutri's 79 yard run in the La Jolla game, off a fake reverse, which had even the coaches guessing; the sterling toil of Coach Brose's upfront boys, who were at once the "Immovable Objects" and the "Irresistible Force"; the winning pass from Joe Adamo to Harry West in the Carnival, which was even more spectacular because it bounced off the hands of a Hooverman; the blinding speed of the backfield, especially in the Hoover game, where the touchdowns were rung up with almost a clocklike regularity; the professional-like blocking of alternating fullbacks John Brown and Marvin Finch; the rugged dependability of ends Dick Jackson and Howard Morris, of guards Don Ferguson and Del Walden, and of center Lee Hubbard; and the smooth precision of Captain Tom Dahms and Xavier Mena, San Diego's gift to prep football.

Biggest cat-talk on the old Gray Castle grounds this season centered on the walkout of some of the more independent boys from the basketball squad. Coach Brose claims it was a minor affair, and news has it that he's bearing a silent grudge against a newer San Diego daily for trying to make a major scandal out of it.

San Diego came out in a tie for second place in Victory League standings this year while old bugaboo Hoover took the crown. Sweetest game to remember was the exhibition tilt with the Cardinals, the home team peppering the basket from points afar to rack up a 26-25 win. Hilltop, however, lost the league game, 29-24, when Redbird sensation Dick Barnes collected eight of his 19 points in the last few minutes of the last quarter. Captain Dick Jackson was the hero of the Sweetwater game, sinking the winning basket, a 30-footer, in the second overtime. Final score was 17-15. Point Loma pulled a sneak 19-14 upset in the last game of the season.

The squad as a group was nothing to shout about in its offensive game but maintained the best defensive average in the League. Opposing player explanations ranged from "just general ability" to "defensive action," as one Clyde Barnes' casualty said, "with murderous intent." Ben Cendali, high point man, and Norm Scudder went around bragging that they were the only forward combination with eight eyes in the city (and how could they miss?); Elfego Padilla had Cavers wondering how he made those baskets by shooting the ball straight up in the air; and Captain Dick Jackson gratified everybody by bringing the girl friend to all the games.

Coach Bill Patten's Junior Varsity team, bolstered by such promising gridders as Bob Sylvester and Tom Poole at ends and Paul Hatter, Ed McClard and Captain Fred Pierce in the backfield, consistently swamped their unhappy opponents for a perfect season, climaxed by a 24 to 6 win over Hoover.

The closing of basketball season found the "B" casaba congregation bringing down the curtain on a near perfect record. Although missing the title by a split hair, Coach Bill Bailey's hoopsters swept over all their metropolitan neighbors except one, their backwoods rival Hoover, whose 34 to 25 win over our Cavemen was the occasion for many loud moans and deep groans, especially after San Diego had won the earlier non-league game.

Backed by the offensive combine of Ray Garcia, whose total of 128 points in the season made him top man in that department, and Captain Wally Pietla, the Bailey ball handlers were able to run up high scores on their opponents while remaining the team least scored on in league play.

Sports—Spring

... By ED STREICHER

Spring couldn't be spring without baseball; and in San Diego High's case, championship baseball. "Championship" is used with reservation pending the outcome of the season; but it is fairly certain at Annual press time that the diamonddeers will end up in first or second place, an old Cave custom. The squad had a taste of both victory and defeat early in the season at the Pomona tournament, where they had to be satisfied with the Consolation prize. After losing the first game to Pasadena by a 2 to 1 score, the team really perked up. Gene Pohl turned in a one-hitter for Coach Brose in the South Pasadena tilt; and in the Excelsior game veteran Bob Peterson came in from center field to strike out 13 and win a berth as pitcher on the All-Tournament Team, along with first baseman Jack Harshman, also a three striper, whose almost every hit was a triple. Only league setback was eked out by Hoover in the first of a three game series. Harry Ohlson pitched three-hit ball but the umpires seemed to be allied with the enemy. The infield was air-tight with Harshman and Chuck Norman holding down first and third, Bob King and Charley Sanfilippo alternating at second, and Vic Salazar at short. In the hit-parade department Fred Pierce was the most consistent; the big guns were Harshman, Peterson, and Urquidi.

Completing the most successful season in its history, Cave matmen dominated Southern California wrestling. Besides massacring El Centro, Holtville, and Kearny, Coach Crosby's grapplers won the County A.A.U. for the 13th consecutive time, and placed ten of twelve men on the first team in the S.C.I.F. Wrestling Meet. Champions, headed by co-captains Bill Daniels and Al Fern, were: Joe Kelly, Jack Sutton, Morris Schmider, Jerry Jacobson, Angel Negrete, Hilly Prentice, Gabriel Nava, Del Walden. Third place winners were Streicher and Partridge.

With the crucial Grossmont win under their belts, Coach Patten's trackmen appeared to be coasting to another Victory League Championship. The meet turned out to be the most exciting in years. Competition was keen; and because of the absence of sprinter Tom Powell and middle-distance runner Charley Robinson, the outcome was doubtful to the last event. Hero was zephyr Norm Stocks with two firsts and a second to his credit. League meets with Kearny, Sweetwater, Point Loma, and Coronado ended up in gratifying routs. Fans are still wondering about the Huntington Beach Relays, in which Grossmont beat San Diego out for second place by a heartbreaking 1 1/3 points: explanation being a flat tire which held up ace low-hurdler Harry West, who just recently set up a new "B" record of 13.2 seconds for the 120 lows. Though Cavers are still supposed to speak in awesome whispers of the mighty '38 and '41 teams, "A" stars were building up to a comparable level at Annual press-time. High jumpers Mike Riehle and Don Rucker were toeing the six foot mark, while the higher-still boys (pole vaulters to you) Pasquel Bono, Pete Corona, and Bobby Smith consider it a bad day when they can't top 11' 3". Season's best time of 22.6" in the 220 was racked up by Harold Landis in the Point Loma Meet with John Holloway running a close second. Jim Barrera had top priority in the broad jump department, and Hoover was expected to offer the only competition to Harry Taylor in the 880. Captain Ted Simpson, Jim Bruton, and Dick Aseltine were neck and neck in the mile, with Ted's 4'48" being the best time so far. Newcomer Howard Sutliff was king of the 70 yard highs, and was a member, together with Barrera, Landis, and Stocks, of the hottest relay team in the city.

This year's "B" team promised to be one of the greatest cinder squads ever to perform for the old Gray Castle. Eight Bees moved up to the varsity for the league meets, and Coach Patten predicts that when the boys get together for the S.C.I.F. Tournament, they'll be unbeatable.

Coach Bill Bailey's J.V. Baseball team got off to a bad start with a loss to Hoover, but they haven't lost a game since. Star pitching performance was Pete Corona's no hit win over Point Loma, and most satisfying game was the return match with Hoover, the Cavers hammering out a 2 to 1 decision.

Winning every dual meet and placing third in the S.C.I.F., Coach Bill Patten's cross country spikemen ran off with this season's Victory League Championship. Sparked by Ink tennis winner, Sophomore Ben Cendali, this season's netmen dropped but one meet. Captain Daryl Dunn and Marv Braddock were two good reasons why this year's golf team was undefeated in local competition and fourth in the S.C.I.F.

Joe Filippi, President

Senior Officers—Fall

Joe Filippi—Wavy black hair, a flashing smile, and out-of-this-world clothes made President Filippi one of the Hill's most glamorous guys. In addition to his social accomplishments, Joe managed to chalk up a good record as one of the best and friendliest students in school. A Latin American enthusiast, Joe dreams of a jaunt to America del Sur as one of his post-war plans.

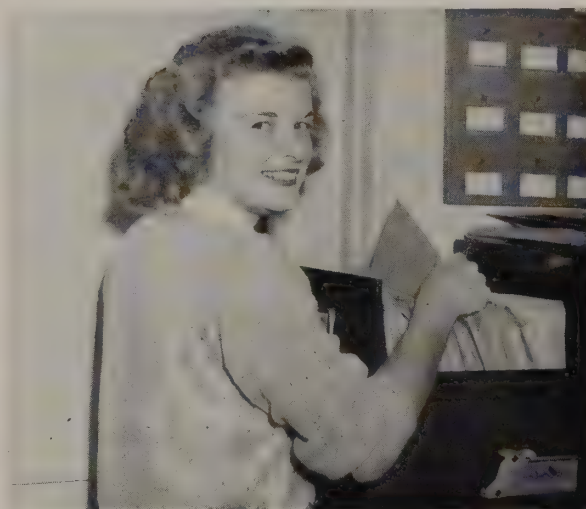

Carmel Botte—Shy and friendly, Carmel represented the Senior A class on the Council, Brother of the February, 1944, Senior president, Lou Botte, he took care of all the jobs of a typical busy vice-prexy as well as playing a part in the senior play.

Gertrude Sumerlin—Little, blonde and dynamic, Gertrude served as secretary for the January seniors. An avid sports fan, she was noted for her passion for horseflesh as well as her concise minute-taking.

Viv Ray Wincote—Always bubbling over with high spirits, Viv Ray handled the financial reins of the class. With the help of Senior Financial Adviser Chester Davis, she managed to keep the Seniors on a paying basis all through the semester.

Seniors—Fall

... By KATHRYN TOBIAS

Now we meet again, Graduates, to recall our Senior A semester at Gray Castle. And what a lot of things we have to look back on! Remember how proud we were the first day we wore those Senior sweaters, for which we had worked and waited for so long? All of our Senior activities seemed like even more fun because of the small size of our class. The first of these was our get-together, complete with all the traditional stunts, planned by our senior officers. The skating party was a huge social if not financial success, with more seniors than we care to remember doing their skating sitting down. Then came Dads' Day, when dads and grads met to have a masculine good time with box suppers and wrestling matches. The feminine counterpart of this parental gathering was the Mothers' Tea; caps and gowns modeled there by outstanding Seniors made us remember that our time on the Hill was growing short. Then, sending us off on our Christmas vacation was the sport dance, for which the gym was decorated in a lovely Yuletide motif.

"Quality Street" was our hilarious Senior play, where we saw our friends transformed into Victorian old maids and dashing cavaliers. And Ditch Day, we all traveled to El Monte Park for all kinds of fun.

Our first solemn event was Vespers, which was conducted at First Baptist Church by Dr. H. H. Savage, of Pontiac, Michigan. This was followed by Gift Day, which will live long in the minds of seniors as the day of the Johnson-Nelson big act. The same day we had at La Jolla what is considered one of the best winter proms ever.

And then came graduation. To girls, it meant further education, work, or marriage. To boys, it meant joining the service of their country. To everyone it meant that we had at last finished that best time of all, high school days.

Senior Officers—Spring

Dick Chapman—Little and live-wire, Dick was noted for his Cabinet answer, "I was just getting around to that!"—followed by Action. Like Joe Filippi, Dick came up fast to take the job of senior prexy from more experienced politicians and lead one of the largest classes in many semesters successfully through all its activities.

Jackie Wilkins—Tall, friendly Jackie of the infectious grin was the Senior A representative on the Council this semester. Before her election to the Cabinet, Jackie began her career as a woman in the public eye by taking the honors as Miss Print in the fall Russ talent show.

Marion McDermott—Seniors on the Cabinet are familiar with the quiet figure of Marion as she sits and takes down every little thing that happens at the hectic meetings. Calm and efficient, Marian was one of the top seven on the June honor roll, maintaining her outstanding record from junior high school, where she had the highest scholastic standing of anyone in her class.

Mary Rainey—Petite Mary with the sunny blond hair managed the books for the Senior class during the spring semester. Succeeding Vice-President Wilkins, Mary was crowned Miss Print at the Russ Talent Show by Editor Al Fern. Helping Mary balance the budget for the class was cute Madeline Foley.

Seniors—Spring

... By KATHLEEN HALL and ROSEMARY BARNES

Life was simple when we were sophomores—the seniors told us what to do and where to go, when to yell, and how much to pay. Now that we're kingpins of the Hilltop, it seems like only a month ago that we sophs saw the lights go on for the first time in the famed "barn," after almost a year of frequent black-out dances, with an ASB after-dark dig. And only yesterday we were flashing senior rings and pins and anxiously awaiting the arrival of our bright blue sweaters.

Our Senior B activities were all marked with that certain necessary ingredient known as good organization. We didn't realize there were so many of us until we saw all five hundred at the Get-together pursuing wandering goobers across the floor of the Boys' Gym on our hands and knees, and Pete Clark, chairman of the zany party, presenting Sam Rafalovich, the Lemon Pie-Eating Champ, with the first prize—a lemon pie.

Roger Ruffin and Marjorie Morrison put their heads together and dreamed up "Hades Holiday," our successful Senior B Sport Dance. Our assembly—the result of hard work by Dan Nordstrom, Senior B president, and Bill Eaton—uncovered talent that had us rolling in the aisles.

Through the energies of Bill Daniels, the class held an off-campus party at the Fox to see Joseph Cotten and Ginger Rogers head the cast of tear-jerking "I'll Be Seeing You." Just two days later friends rushed up to us, shrieking madly, "Hi, Senior A!" Came the long awaited Skating Party—the Ides of March plus one—and Colleen fiendishly planned floor show of impromptu stunts by unsuspecting angle-ankled Hillers.

Hibicuses decorated the hair of Senior A Cavebells to carry out the clever theme of the Sport Dance—Fiesta. Spanish students wandered happily about, trying limited vocabularies on amazed friends, as the affair, brain-storm of Dot Johnston and her peppy "amigos," came off without a hitch on Friday, April 13.

"Kill the umpire!" How about that rugged Senior A-Faculty softball game we witnessed in the stadium? Thanks to Charley Robinson, Senior A's got in a little practice in the fine art of rooting.

"Men, beware! Women within!" This last might be the warning issued by Mary Oliphant and Carolyn Nichols as they arranged for the presentation of the Mothers' Tea.

"Right on" was our own senior A play. Arlene Lescarbeau, Mimette Wishart, and Honey Van Natta, top Hill talent, were ogled by applauding audiences in "The Rivals."

Since fellas feel foolish drinking tea, the male element of the senior A class had real eats at their two-generation get-together, traditional counterpart of the Mothers' Tea.

Here's sand in your eye! Also eye-filling was the bevy of Castle bathing beauties basking in the fog-filtered beams of Old Sol. New Mission was carpeted as far as our squinting eyes could reach with happy Hillers swimming, playing games, eating, and pulling "funnies" on each other. Garlands of seaweed (kelp! kelp!) go to the organizers of our great "D-Day," chairmen Bill Daniels and Dick Latham.

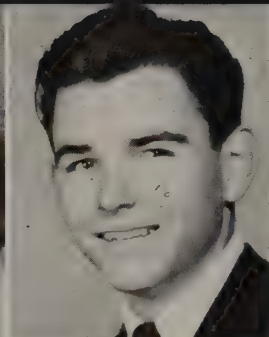

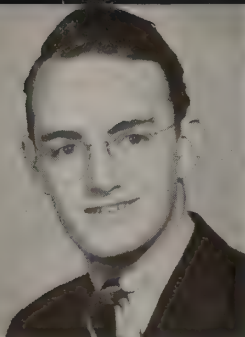

Our class took a big step out into a troubled world, and we didn't overlook the solemnity of the occasion. An inspiring invocation and the presence of the senior A choir made an impressive ceremony of Vespers.

As the momentary nostalgia of Pomp and Circumstance faded away at Gift Day, we were left quaking with fear and awaiting our fate at the hands of Betty Williamson and her mischievous crew.

During the months before the Prom the female three-fourths of our class spent their time pursuing a tan, while the mighty males were worrying about such minor details as gas, and/or the possibilities of leeching a ride with erstwhile pals. Among the girls Iona Rockwell and Ione Rhodes succeeded in garnering beautiful tans while completing plans for our marvelous Prom at the Square.

It did not seem as though we had actually spent three whole years on the Hilltop. Miss Phillippi and the Senior A cabinet had made our last months as memorable as the only last months can be. June Chavez, chairman of Commencement, our last activity, brought home to us the fact that this was our real commencement, or beginning.

Honor Roll

The Scholarship Honor Roll of the classes of June and January, 1945, has been compiled in the office of the high school. This record is based on the work of the five senior high school semesters. All students whose semester grades of "A" (superior) number eleven or more are placed on the honor roll. A perfect record for the five semesters would be twenty 'A's,' as the average student carries four subjects each semester. A few honor students are able to carry five subjects and thus accumulate more than twenty "A's" during their high school course.

Students who enter with grades of "A" from other schools have their "A's" accepted for the honor roll providing they make as good grades while in attendance at San Diego High School.

BRIDGID BOLAND: Graduating with a remarkable 48 credits, Bridgid is a language major taking French, Spanish, and Latin. Her interests are diversified: she is a ballet dancer, ice skater, and fine horsewoman as well as an enthusiastic writer of letters to students in foreign countries. She has done outstanding work on The Russ, and is a member of the annual staff and the Senior A Cabinet.

JUNE CHAVEZ: An all-around student, June is chairman of the Choir and in charge of arrangements for Commencement. Her interest in music stood her in good stead as Music Commissioner on the Council several semesters ago. Choir members remark on her lovely, unusually high soprano voice, her good sportsmanship, and her amazing Oriental eyes.

ALICE JEAN HODGE: Noted for her outstanding work in English, Alice Jean is one of three girl students tied for first place on the Honor Roll. Like others among the scholastic top seven, she is a member of the Commencement Script Committee. She has been active on the GL Board of Control. Alice Jean is also famous for making almost every item in her lovely wardrobe.

DONNA KNOX: Quiet and reserved except in the wide open spaces of her father's ranch, Donna efficiently earned her A's. Enthusiastic about everything, she has always loved to ride horseback. She also enjoys taking her friends out in the family car. She makes friends easily with her quick and pleasant smile.

MARGARET LEWIS: Competent in everything from math to English literature, Margaret finds an outlet for her scholastic abilities in getting just about the best possible grades in all her subjects. One of her most successful senior accomplishments was the writing of an almost perfect imitation of a scene from "Hamlet" in her English Lit class.

MARION McDERMOTT: Besides making mostly recommended grades, Marian has taken time out during her high school career to be active in politics, serving both on the Girls' League Board of Control and the Senior A Cabinet. She is noted for the precision with which she does her assignments and her willingness to take on "just one more job."

RICK SHERMAN: A science major, Rick wants to be an engineer. He likes to eat "lots," speaks enough Spanish to clerk part-time in a bilingual general store. Friends remember him for his deliberate speech and complete earnestness about anything that interests him. He likes to find mental comfort in angling in some clear, cool stream.

ALMA ULLOA: Top girl on the January honor roll. Alma shone as Senior A typist. Now working at a downtown bank, she got her only non-recommended grade—in typing. While on the Hill, she was noted for her sparkling eyes and infectious laugh as well as her bouncing gait.

JUNE OYER: A sports enthusiast, June is now studying at the University of California at Los Angeles. She plans to become a laboratory technician upon graduation. Her activities at Hilltop included arranging for Senior announcements while at Gray Castle. She was well known for her prowess in soft ball.

BILL DAVIES: Bill, who took almost every possible honor at the honor award assembly, was a science major. He played guard on the Varsity basketball team until he was graduated. According to his many pals, he likes to sleep and eat when he takes time off from his studies. He's kidded about wavy hair, long eye-lashes.
